

ALABAMA REPORTER.

TALLADEGA, ALA.
M. B. CRAVENSHAW, EDITOR.

THURSDAY, Nov. 5, 1863.

THE NEWS.

There has been but little interesting news from our armies during the past week. The enemy have succeeded in crossing the river at a point below Chattanooga. They have engaged in a desperate effort to get possession of Lookout Mountain. The telegrams state that active operations are on foot in Lookout valley, and that there was heavy fighting on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of last week. String news from that quarter is expected daily.

At Charleston the Yankees have kept up a terrible fire upon Fort Sumpter. The bombardment continued all last evening and the old fort holding out, even against all the power and skill of the enemy.

NO FRIENDS Meeting on Monday.

For some reason we know not what, our visitors failed to meet at the Court House on Monday last, pursuant to adjournment. We had no opportunity therefore to hear the reports of the different Read Committees and to know who had and who had not subscribed to aid in supplying the soldiers families.

We have been enabled to obtain from the Hon. Wm. H. Thornton, our Probate Judge the following synopsis of his report prepared for the public meeting.

It will be remembered that the sum subscribed was to be furnished at 50cts per bushel. The sum $9,000. The sum at $20 per sack. Many however preferred to donate what they intended to furnish rather than subscribe at the price of the different premiums.

Oct. 10th 1863.

We appeal to the citizens of Talladega to furnish the members of our companies with "covering" either blankets, coverlets, carpeting, &c. The government has failed to procure blankets, many of them have no blankets and are suffering. Hence I call upon you at home to exert yourselves to procure all once as many as possible and deposit with Gen. J. G. Lucy, who is prepared to receive them and will pay you ten dollars for each.

NOTICE.

I have been detailed to come and collect necessary articles for a soldier's outfit—such as blankets, shoes and socks, for the three Companies of the 31st Regt. of the Alabama Cavalry. Many of the men are detailled to these articles, unless they are soon supplied, they must suffer much. I appeal to citizens of the County to furnish every thing they can for the comfort of the soldiers—Those who cannot furnish—those who cannot will be paid for them. All articles must be left with Major Lucy or M. H. Cuningham by Dec. 1st.
